

Week 17 - Theme. Arctic Journey

This week we are sending you on an imaginary Arctic exploration for two whole months. You can research a little more about the Arctic before you start if you wish. Here is a backpack, which you can put anything you may need inside. Think about precious objects that you couldn't live without, maybe a teddy or a photograph. Will you pack any snacks? Or supplies like a tent? It's completely up to you.
