

Week 17 - Theme

This week we would like you to take part in two events if you can. The first event is a Facebook live event held on Monday 13th July at 11.30am. If you do not have access to Facebook then please don't worry. There will be a quiz and some free books to download on Family Zone. For more information follow the link on the image below.

- Have a think about questions that you would like to ask them.
- Have you read any of Tom Palmer's books? Which one/s? Do you have a favourite.
- Would you recommend it to a friend? Why?

- If you haven't read any of his books, would you like to? Why?

As part of the Premier League's upcoming takeover of our popular Family Zone platform, we're bringing you a football-themed Facebook Live event that kids will love! Award-winning football author Tom Palmer will be chatting live with CBBC Match of the Day Kickabout presenter Ben Shires and answering kids' questions. Join in and watch out for an exclusive announcement on the day!

Choose your favourite book or a new book to read with your family on Thursday 16th July as part of The National Literacy Trusts first ever Read Together Day.

We're excited to be supporting the very first Reading Together Day on 16 July, which invites children and families across the UK to take part in a celebration of the magical world of stories and the power of shared reading.

The aim of day is to bring families, friends, schools and wider communities together to share stories and have fun! A whole host of activities and events from a group of incredible organisations will enable people of all ages to celebrate reading, make connections, and build important literacy skills, whilst also helping to support wellbeing.

Reading Together Day is coordinated by The Reading Agency in collaboration with the National Literacy Trust, Authors Aloud UK, Arts Council England, ASCEL, BookTrust, British Library, CILIP, Coram Beanstalk, DCMS, Department for Education, Dollywood Foundation, Libraries Connected, Open University, Publishers Association, School Library Association and World Book Day.

Keep an eye on our Twitter and follow the hashtag #ReadingTogether to stay up-to-date with all the fantastic activities, events and celebrations for everyone to enjoy from all of the organisations behind Reading Together Day.
