Dear parents and carers,

This year on Friday 7th March, we are celebrating World Book Day. Children will receive a £1 book voucher and in return, we are inviting them to bring in their favourite book, comic or magazine and wear pyjamas. The theme is Read Your Way. They can also bring a toy, a pillow or a blanket as they will have opportunity to get cosy and share books.

These links will show you the official £1 books that can be bought with the voucher at bookshops and supermarkets:

For younger children, this link gives you many stories to share with your child:

This link gives you access to free audio books to share for beginner, fluent and independent readers:

We would also take this opportunity to say a big thank you for all your support with our reading initiatives at Appleton. Please pop in and see your child's class teacher if you would like some suggestions about how to support your child with reading.

Yours sincerely

Mrs M Langton
